

SHARE-A-FARE COURIER SERVICES APPLICATION

What are Courier Services under Share-A-Fare?

In response to COVID, EMBARK is expanding Share-A-Fare to provide the full cost of courier services to support seniors and individuals with disabilities. The first 125 participants to sign up for courier services will receive up to four courier service deliveries per month at no cost. The courier driver will pick up pre-ordered and pre-paid groceries, prescriptions, or other small items and deliver them to the current residence. Courier trips must occur within ten miles of the residence. Prescriptions cannot include controlled prescriptions requiring a photo id or medical marijuana.

How to Apply

1. Complete the information below. EMBARK will process your completed application and you will receive a letter notifying you of your eligibility status and how to schedule a courier trip.
2. If you are applying based on AGE, include a copy of your government-issued photo id to verify your birthdate and a copy of your most recent water bill from Oklahoma City.
3. If you are applying based on DISABILITY, include a note from your physician or certified health professional on letterhead or a prescription note pad that states your disability, and a copy of your most recent water bill from Oklahoma City to verify address.
